

Policy Roundtable on Green Rating of Thermal Power Plants
Mumbai
7th April, 2015

	Registration	09:00
A	Ratings and Disclosure	09:30 - 10:15
	a. Priyavrat Bhati , Programme Director, CSE, Power sector's GRP rating and findings b. Chandra Bhushan , Deputy Director General, CSE - Power sector - policy recommendations c. Dhaval Patel , AGM CARE Ratings - Incorporating environmental assessment into credit ratings
B	Recommendations to Improve Env. performance	10:15 - 11:15
	a. Anand Pattani , Vice President and Regional Director, Energy Business, Black & Veatch - Technologies for mitigating environmental impacts of power plants b. Kapil Kumar , Deputy General Manager, Steam Turbine Execution Centre, Thermal Services, Alstom India - Enhancing energy efficiency of power plants c. Anant Sudarshan , Director of the Energy Policy Institute at Chicago University (EPIC-India), J-PAL - Compliance through alternative mechanisms d. Suhas Tendulkar , Fellow & Head, Centre for Climate and Sustainability Policy, World Institute of Sustainable Energy - Policy Perspectives on Coal based Generation Technologies
	Tea Break	11:15 - 11:30
C	Panel Discussion - Financing, Business and Policy Implications	11:30 - 12:00
	a. Prasad Modak , Executive President and Founder, Environmental Management Centre - Environment Clearances - Gaps and Improvements b. Rajnish Kadambar , Senior Vice President, IDFC - Environmental Risks and Project Finance c. Saurabh Gupta , Manager, Infrastructure & Government Services, KPMG - Business perspectives on Green Rating of Coal based Thermal Power Plants
D	Panel Discussion - Impact of Tighter Environmental Regulations on Investments, Costs and Tariffs; capacity needs and PLF	12:00 - 12:30
	a. Prashant Kokil , Head-Corp. Environment & Climate Change, Tata Power Company Ltd. b. J.P. Debroy , Vice-President, JSW Energy Ltd. c. U.S. Bapat , Former VP, Operations, Tata Power Company Ltd.-India's energy policy - Generation needs and capacity utilization
E	Open Forum & Closing Remarks	12:30 - 13:00
	Lunch	13:00