

PROGRAMME

First India-Africa Dialogue and Media Briefing on Air Quality and Mobility

February 27, 2015

Conference Hall, Eastland Hotel, Nairobi, Kenya

8:30- 9:00 am	Registration
9:00 – 11:15 am	Welcome address and introduction # Aghan Daniel , secretary, Media for Environment, Science, Health and Agriculture, Nairobi (MESHA) # Souparno Banerjee , programme director-media and publications, Centre for Science and Environment (CSE), New Delhi #
	Setting the agenda Urban air pollution control and transport management strategies in India: Wins and challenges # Anumita Roychowdhury , executive director-research and advocacy, CSE #
	Air quality monitoring and management, and strategies to improve air quality in Kenyan cities Prof Geoffrey Wahungu , director general, National Environment Management Authority (NEMA), Kenya #
11:15- 11:30am	TEA
11:30 – 1:00 pm	Setting the agenda of future action on clean air and sustainable mobility in African cities # Prof Shem Wandiga , University of Nairobi, Kenya
	Challenges and initiatives to address urban transport and air pollution in Nairobi and other cities & UNEP initiatives under 'Africa Sustainable Transport Forum' and 'Partnership for Clean Fuels and Vehicles' Rob Jong , head, Transport Unit, United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP), Nairobi, Kenya
1:00 – 2:00 pm	LUNCH

2:00 – 4:00 pm	Assessment of policies on air pollution in Africa Prof Nzioka John Muthama, University of Nairobi, Kenya
	Policy and public initiatives towards promoting walking and cycling in African cities Amanda A Ngabirano, Makerere University, Kampala, Uganda
	Designing cities for sustainable transport Adarsha Kapoor, deputy programme manager, clean air and sustainable mobility programme, CSE
	Policies and air pollution: A case study of Tanzania Petro Ahham, Arusha, Tanzania
	Media experiences: Air pollution and transport in African cities Otulah Owuor, ScienceAfrica, Nairobi, Kenya
4:00– 4:30 pm	VOTE OF THANKS
4:30 pm	TEA