

INTERNATIONAL TRAINING PROGRAMME ON

WATER SENSITIVE URBAN DESIGN AND PLANNING

14-22 July, 2020

Centre for Science and Environment (CSE), India in partnership with Water Research Commission (WRC), South Africa and University of Cape Town (UCT) is organizing an international virtual training programme on “Water Sensitive Urban Design and Planning” (WSUDP) for African practitioners.

KEY THEMES

This training will focus on the components of WSUDP:

- Rain/stormwater harvesting at different scales in urban areas.
- Flood control and mitigation strategies including Sustainable Drainage Systems (SuDS).
- Decentralised management of wastewater through Decentralised Wastewater Treatment Systems (DWWTS).

PART 1: Context-setting for WSUDP (Online Platform): 14-20 July, 2020

Participants will be enrolled and provided with 8-10 hours (approx.) reading / audio-visual training material providing brief overview of challenges and opportunities in urban water management, WSUDP concepts, and the framework for implementation.

*Applicable for participants from South Africa and other African nations.

PART 2: WSUDP Planning and Designing (Virtual Sessions): 21-22 July, 2020

Day 1: Scale, data requirements and case studies
4-hour lecture (incl. short breaks) + 2-hour session for group exercises.

Day 2: Planning and Designing WSUDP features
3-hour lecture session (incl. short breaks) + 1.5-hour session for group exercise + 1-hour presentation session + 0.5-hour for closing remarks and feedback.
