

FOR CITYWIDE WATER AND SANITATION MANAGEMENT

BACKGROUND

Understanding the need for capacity building of stakeholders to ensure a water and sanitation prudent society, CSE's School of Water and Waste at AAETI is bringing back its 10 day residential programme for a second round!

DATE: April 16 - 26, 2019

VENUE: Anil Agarwal Environment Training Institute (AAETI), Nimli, Rajasthan (301405)

LANGUAGE OF INSTRUCTION: English

OPEN FOR: National and International participants

TARGET PARTICIPANTS: State and Nonstate stakeholders working in urban water and sanitation management.

HOW TO APPLY?

For registration and scholarship, please visit: https://tinyurl.com/ y4r2nc5o

Full and Part Scholarships available!

Full scholarship includes travel, boarding & lodging costs and training fees & kit.

Part scholarship includes boarding & lodging costs and training fees & kit.

Only short-listed candidates will be informed

TRAINING LAYOUT

PART I Water Prudent Cities: Resources Assessment, Budgeting, Planning and Augmentation

DATE: April 16 -19, 2019

- Hydrological Information System (HIS) and Geographic Information System (GIS)
- Water Sensitive Urban Design & Planning (WSUDP)
 (Sustainable Urban Drainage System SuDS and Rainwater Harvesting - RWH)

PART II Non-sewered Sanitation

DATE: April 23-26, 2019

- Decentralised Wastewater Treatment Systems (DWWTs)
- Shit Flow Diagram (SFD) and Faecal Sludge and Septage Management (FSSM)

FIELD VISITS

DATE: April 20 - 22, 2019

COURSE COORDINATOR: For more information on the training programme kindly contact: _

Dr. Mahreen Matto

Programme Manager, Water Programme +91-11-40616000 (Ext: 257) Email: mahreen@cseindia.org

Shivali Jainer

Deputy Programme Manager, Water Programme +91-11-40616000 (Ext: 244) Email: Shivali@cseindia.org

Dr. Suresh Kumar Rohilla

Senior Director & Academic Director, (School of Water and Waste, Anil Agarwal Environment Training Institute - AAETI). srohilla@cseindia.org