Centre for Science and Environment (CSE) has been working in Uttar Pradesh since 2015 and has entered into a partnership with the Department of Urban Development (DoUD), Government of Uttar Pradesh for 'Support for Effective Septage Management in Uttar Pradesh' in January 2018. CSE is engaged in a state wide scale up of septage management and supporting the NMCG investment in the Faecal Sludge Treatment Plant in Chunar and a Faecal Sludge Co-Treatment Plant in Bijnor.

CSE has set up a Programme Support Unit (PSU) in Lucknow

(Uttar Pradesh) to support the state and city-level institutions in planning, creating operating guidelines and enabling frameworks. CSE also supported the roll out of the State Faecal Sludge and Septage Management Policy (2019). The state has taken the initiative of establishing Faecal Sludge Treatment Plants in more than 40 towns and Faecal Sludge Co-Treatment units in 22 towns in the state. As most of the plants are in the advanced stage, Centre for Science and Environment plans to conduct the exposure visit to Odisha FSSM projects to take the Uttar Pradesh FSSM journey forward.
