Madam:

We thank you for giving us an opportunity to comment on setting standards of Trans Fats in Vanaspati and Vegetable Oil.

We have to inform you that we are manufacturing pure ghee in the brand name of "milkfood". Pure ghee is prepared by processing milk or butter. The process involves no hydrogenation as in the case of Vanaspati. Since we are not manufacturing hydrogenous Oils and Vanaspati, this may not be in the scope for technical comments. We, however, greatly appreciate your efforts and offer our full assistance that you may require.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
For MILKFOOD LIMITED
