

Orientation Workshop
Safe Access and Parking Strategies for Liveable Cities

February 16, 2017

Conference room, Lytton Hotel, 14 & 14/1, Sudder Street, Kolkata

9.30 am: REGISTRATION and TEA/COFFEE

SESSION 1: SETTING THE AGENDA

10.00 am – 11.45 am

- Welcome: Priyanka Chandola, Programme Manager, Centre for Science and Environment (CSE)
- Anumita Roychowdhury, Executive Director, CSE
Setting the agenda: Ensuring safe access and vehicle restraint measures to scale up sustainable transport
- Debasish Kumar, Member, Mayor-in-Council, Kolkata Municipal Corporation
How can Kolkata reinvent mobility and promote non-motorised transport (NMT) for a sustainable city and parking initiatives of the Kolkata Municipal Corporation

Discussant:

- Mahalaya Chatterjee, Professor and Director, Centre for Urban Economic Studies, Department of Economics, Calcutta University

Question and Answer

11.45 am – 12.00 pm: TEA/COFFEE BREAK

SESSION 2: NON-MOTORISED TRANSPORT, SAFE ACCESS AND PARKING CHALLENGES AND INITIATIVES

12.00 pm – 2.30 pm

- Ashok Bhattacharjee, Advisor, CSE
Street design guidelines for design interventions
- Pradip Kumar Sarmah, Executive Director, Centre for Rural Development, Guwahati
Importance of NMT and Diphahan rickshaw bank initiative

Discussants:

- Manas Ranjan Ray, Former Senior Scientific Officer and Head, Department of Experimental Hematology, Chittaranjan National Cancer Institute, Kolkata
- Debasish Bhattacharyya, Tram Activist and Chief Scientist, Indian Institute of Chemical Biology, Kolkata

Question and Answer

Open house discussion and concluding remarks

2.30 pm onwards: LUNCH