Taking water sport to higher level

By Vinoose Analamaz

S

S

By Analamaz Analamaz

White Water Rafting

Sailing using the wind for propulsion

Parasailing where a person is towed

attached to a parachute

for propulsion in combination with the board is smaller and the person

crawling towards the ocean from training. But they are quite enthusiastic

the locals are not so keen about the sport.

Richard Nixon, Lord

Edward Heath, Princess

of his father Cyril Gardiner in 1997.

It is listed as one of the '1,000

hotels.

The hotel also employs the

architect and environmentalist, Tom ecost. The hotel got its name from a bathroom. He

mud walls and a simple bathroom. He

of fishes. The

of the

In contrast, Yala Safari Hotel which

depends on sand dunes. Even the coastal hotels were

built naturally on the beach, which

incentive of the tsunami. Also the Muhudu

is also home to sand dunes everywhere. This makes the story throughout South Asia.

tried very hard to protect and recreate

scientists, policymakers and activists important for coastal management. The

Fisher, Richard Nixon, Lord

of his father Cyril Gardiner in 1997.

It is listed as one of the '1,000

hotels.

The hotel also employs the

architect and environmentalist, Tom
ecost. The hotel got its name from a bathroom. He

mud walls and a simple bathroom. He

of fishes. The

of the

In contrast, Yala Safari Hotel which

depends on sand dunes. Even the coastal hotels were built naturally on the beach, which

incentive of the tsunami. Also the Muhudu is also home to sand dunes everywhere. This makes the story throughout South Asia.

tried very hard to protect and recreate scientists, policymakers and activists important for coastal management. The Fisher, Richard Nixon, Lord Edward Heath, Princess

Tradition meets modernity at Galle Face Hotel

The Galle Face Hotel now celebrates its 90th anniversary of operation in this legendary waterfront hotel.

The hotel is originally known for its distinctive architecture as it was built for the British at the end of the 1920s. The hotel's renowned architecture, which is the hallmark of the hotel's charm and character, is an example of the architectural style that was prevalent in the early 20th century. The hotel's unique architecture, which includes the distinctive Galle Face tower, has been preserved over the years and continues to be a popular attraction for visitors.

The hotel's modern facilities and services, such as the Galle Face Hotel Beach Club, have been added to the hotel's attractions. The hotel's beach club offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's restaurant also offers a range of dining options, from casual to fine dining. The hotel's dining options include the Galle Face Hotel's main restaurant, which offers a range of dishes from the hotel's kitchen, as well as the hotel's beach club, which offers a range of seafood dishes.

The hotel also offers a range of wellness and spa services, such as the hotel's fitness center and spa. The hotel's fitness center offers a range of fitness activities, such as yoga, tai chi, and massage.

The hotel's location on the beach also offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's history, architecture, and facilities make it a popular destination for visitors, and its modern facilities and services ensure that it continues to be a popular choice for visitors.

The hotel's location on the beach also offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's history, architecture, and facilities make it a popular destination for visitors, and its modern facilities and services ensure that it continues to be a popular choice for visitors.

The hotel's location on the beach also offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's history, architecture, and facilities make it a popular destination for visitors, and its modern facilities and services ensure that it continues to be a popular choice for visitors.

The hotel's location on the beach also offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's history, architecture, and facilities make it a popular destination for visitors, and its modern facilities and services ensure that it continues to be a popular choice for visitors.

The hotel's location on the beach also offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's history, architecture, and facilities make it a popular destination for visitors, and its modern facilities and services ensure that it continues to be a popular choice for visitors.

The hotel's location on the beach also offers a range of activities, such as water sports, swimming, and sunbathing.

The hotel's history, architecture, and facilities make it a popular destination for visitors, and its modern facilities and services ensure that it continues to be a popular choice for visitors.