

Training Programme on Sustainable rural sanitation

Venue: Anil Agarwal Environment Training Institute, Alwar Rajasthan

May 21-25, 2019

Speakers

|                              |   |  |  |
|------------------------------|---|--|--|
| Sampath Rajkumar      | Executive Director of RDO Trust, Nilgiri, Tamil Nadu. Over 41 years of experience in Rural Development sector in India. Expertise in community mobilization and natural resources management particularly focused on sustainable livelihoods.   |    | sampath_rajkumar@yahoo.com       |
| Loknathan             | Veteran project management professional offering over 30 years of experience in planning, overseeing, and executing micro level projects at rural India in housing, sanitation and infrastructure works as Rural Development Department Engineer  |   | loknathsk@gmx.com                         |
| Krishna C Rao         | Trained development expert with an academic background in international development and non-profit management and bachelors in chemical engineering. More than 15 years of experience working in developing countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America on provision of infrastructure service and specifically on sanitation service such a solid and liquid waste management incorporating reuse and energy access for underserved communities. |  | kcraop@gmail.com                           |
| Professor A. C. Attar | PhD in Civil Engineering, and has 20 year experience in teaching. He is the distinguished member of organizations like - The Institution of Engineers (India), Kolkatta (MIE) and Indian Society for Technical Education (ISTE). He work intensively on Value Engineering, Project Management, Low-cost housing, Construction Management and solid waste management and publish several research articles in journal of international repute.     |  | abdurashid.attar@ritindia.edu |

|                           |  |  |  |
|---------------------------|--|--|--|
| Priyanka Sharma    | Post Graduate in Social Work from Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai. Development professional actively working in Rajasthan state for the past 11 years on issues of Maternal & Child Health (2007-2014) and on Sanitation (2014 to date) under reputed national and international organisations. Experience in working with The World Bank.   |    | sharmapriyanka.q@gmail.com   |
| Sushmita Sengupta  | Post graduate in Geology having vast experience in research on water management and sanitation in India and Global South. Her current responsibilities include capacity building, research, knowledge dissemination and policy advocacy in water management and sanitation. Contributed in the writing, compilation and preparation of various scientific education materials in international journals, books and reports under the broad theme of rock, soil, aquifer, groundwater management and sanitation |    | sushmita@cseindia.org             |
| Dinesh Raj Bandela | Worked for behavior change communication-public awareness on source segregation in 79 wards of North Delhi with Ramky Group. Experienced in mapping and commissioning collection & transportation operations and handling processing & disposal operations of a centralized solid waste management facility.   |   | dinesh.bandela@cseindia.org |
| Rashmi Verma       | Doctorate in Environmental Sciences and working as senior researcher in Water Policy and Advocacy unit at CSE for last three years. Expertise in water management practices and wastewater treatment systems. Published more than 10 research papers in journals of international repute.  |  | rashmi@cseindia.org                 |